

Encaustic Art Institute presents:

Two Day Workshop With Douglas Mehrens

POLYURETHANE RESIN AND WAX WORKSHOP

Schedule: July 22, 23 & August 5, 6

10 am – 4 pm

Cost: $425 All supplies and Tax included

WORKSHOP WILL COVER:

In this 2 day class Douglas will demonstrate 4 different methods of painting with Polyurethane and wax. Includes mixing with oil paint, silicone, graffiti and other materials. He will show you how to pour solid sculptural pieces, making forms that hold wax and poly. All materials can be applied to cradle board, canvas, water color paper and more. It is truly an endless art form and gives a glass-like quality work.

This class is for artists working in wax, but also anyone that wants to have a very unique adventure in any medium including wax. We use a non-odor polyurethane which makes it easy and safe to use.

Partical Explosion #10, 20 x 20 inches, wax and poly resin on watercolor paper

Workshops are designed for all levels of experience, including no experience with wax medium.

Workshop registration at: Douglas Mehrens Mehrens@eainm.com

Or call Adrienne: 505-424-6487 (office) Class limited to 8 people: Sign up early

Douglas Mehrens, Founder of the Encaustic Art Institute, Museum of Encaustic Art, the online Encaustic Arts Magazine – has been working with encaustic/wax going on 35 years. In the last 10 years of his art career, he has also been working with resin, inventing ways of combining it with 2-D and 3-D encaustic/wax. Loving the sturdy, and unique quality of resin with wax – Douglas has been teaching resin techniques for over 8 years, sharing his vast knowledge and playfulness with this unique combination of materials.

Encaustic Art Institute 632 Agua Fria Street Santa Fe, NM 87501

EAINM.com